1. Basic provisions

1.1. Background

The regional cooperation remains one of the main challenges for the region of Western Balkans, especially taking into consideration its capacity to positively influence regional stability and bring various practical benefits for its citizens and societies.

To this end, strengthening of the regional cooperation represents an essential requirement for the Western Balkans contracting parties, including their EU membership aspirations.

The Western Balkans Fund’s main objective is to foster cooperation between its members (Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo*, Montenegro, North Macedonia, Serbia), by strengthening neighborly relations and regional cohesion and to advance the integration of the WB into the European Union.

The Fund aims to achieve these goals by supporting common regional projects, at “people-to-people” level, creating the conditions to share mutual experiences, values, traditions and culture, in a regional perspective.

1.2. Objectives and areas of intervention

The overall objective of the WBF third Call for Proposals is to contribute to regional and cross-border cooperation, good neighborly relation and strengthen regional cohesion in the WB region.

The areas of intervention for this call for proposals are following:

A. Cultural cooperation
B. Education and scientific exchange
C. Sustainable development

The project application should contribute to at least one of the above areas of intervention.

Please note that promoting reconciliation, European Integration, cross-border cooperation, freedom of expression, gender equality and youth are the cross-cutting issues covering all actions under WBF key areas of activities.
1.3. Financial allocation provided by the contracting authority

The overall indicative amount made available under this Call for proposals is EUR 250,000.00

1.3.1. Size of grants

Any grant requested under this Call for Proposals must not exceed EUR 12,000.00

Any grant funding requested from the WBF under this call for proposals must not exceed 80% of the total eligible cost of the action.

The remaining percentage (i.e. the difference between the total cost of the action and the amount requested from the WBF) must be financed from the following non-WBF sources:

1. Beneficiary (self-financing or/and in-kind contributions).
2. Financial contributions from other donors.
3. Contributions in-kind from third parties (only in duly justified cases).

2. Rules for the call for proposals

2.1. Eligibility criteria

These guidelines are setting forth the following three eligibility criteria sets:

a) Eligibility of applicants
b) Eligibility of project actions
c) Eligibility of expenses
d) Eligibility of partnership

The eligibility of project proposals will be checked against the criteria outlined below.

2.1.1. Eligibility of applicants

2.1.1.1. The lead-applicant

In order to be eligible for a grant, the lead applicant must be:

- A legal entity established in the WB6, and

2.1.3. Eligibility of partnership
For the purpose of application in this Call for Proposals, the applicants must form project partnerships.
Project partnership is consisted of the lead-applicant and minimum two project partners.

Partnership parties must come from at least three different WBF contracting parties.

2.1.3.1. The role project partners
The role of lead applicant and project partners must be elaborated in the project application form under methodology section.

The project partners participate in designing, developing the project idea and implementing the project and the costs they incur are eligible in the same way as those incurred by the lead applicant.

The project partners must satisfy the eligibility criteria as applicable to the lead applicant.

2.1.4. Eligibility of costs
Only eligible costs can be covered by a grant. The categories of costs that are eligible and non-eligible are as indicated below.

2.1.4.1. Eligible direct costs
The WBF Third Call for Proposals foresees cost-sharing as a mandatory condition of receiving a grant. The WBF covers up to 80% of total project costs. The remaining 20% of the budget shall consist of other financial (the applicant’s, partners’ or other donors’ financial contributions) or non-financial contributions (in-kind).

A well-planned budget shall be simple and realistic. The budget should include approximations of the project’s future expenditures in EUR (€) based on real costs in the market.

All budget costs have to be eligible costs, no matter the source of financing (grant or co-financing) and ONLY the costs presented in the budget will be considered for financing.

Detailed project costs together with financing sources have to be presented in “Annex B” the budget form.
Total budget of the project consists of grant awarded plus 20% co-financing of the total budget.

The amount of the awarded grant and the percentage of the WBF financing as a result of future corrections cannot be increased.

It is therefore in the applicant’s interest to provide a realistic and cost-effective budget.

Applicants are recommended to use the average exchange rates available at the given national bank at the time of preparing the application form.

When planning the budget, it is important to adhere to the following list of eligible cost categories, i.e., costs that can be covered by the Fund:

1. Printing and publishing/Delivery of printed/published materials
2. Rent of premises and related technical services
3. Fees for artists/Copyrights
4. Fees for experts
5. Accommodation and board
6. Transportation costs
7. Translations and interpreting costs
8. Awards and prizes
9. Office stationery costs/Consumption material (e.g. paper, flipcharts, toner, stapler etc.)
10. Public relations costs, advertising and promotion material
11. Overhead costs—max. 10% of the granted sum (e.g. project coordination, accountancy, one’s own work on the project or other running expenses).

2.1.4.2. Ineligible costs

The following costs cannot be covered (with the exception of 10% overhead costs):

1. Tangible and intangible assets (e.g. purchase of certain equipment or property)
2. Applicant’s own indirect costs (e.g. utilities, central telephone bills)
3. Internal costs (rent of one’s own premises, one’s own work)
4. Salaries or financial remuneration of employees (or any expenses related employment based on the labor code, including allowances and part-time work, per-diems, etc.)
5. Applicant’s individual sponsorships for participation in workshops, seminars, conferences, congresses
6. Applicant’s activities undertaken before signature of the contract
7. Applicant’s activities aimed at profit making activities
8. Applicant’s activities those are directly affiliated with or supportive of political parties.
2.1.4.3. Contributions in kind (by the third parties)

An in-kind contribution is a noncash, other than monetary contribution or input which can be given a cash value. Expenditures in-kind can take the form of:

1. Donation of goods or services, time or expertise, rather than cash or appreciated property.
2. Infrastructure support, office supplies support, equipment support etc.
3. Human resources of the organizing institution.

2.2. How to apply and the procedures to follow

2.2.1. Where and how to send full applications

Lead applicants are invited to submit a full application, in English language, by using the application package annexed to these guidelines (Annex A, B and C).

Full application includes the following documents:

1. Annex A. Application form
2. Annex B. Budget
3. Annex C. Declaration by the lead-applicant

The full application must be submitted online to the following email:

WBFapplications@westernbalkansfund.org

Upon submission of the full application online, the lead applicants will receive a confirmation of receipt with the link for the survey to be completed by the applicant. Unless the confirmation of the receipt is not received within 7 days after the deadline please contact the WBF.

Please note that incomplete applications may be rejected.

2.2.2. Deadline for submission of full applications

The deadline for the submission of project applications is following: 10 December 2019 at 17:00hrs (WB6 time).

The lead applicant is advised to avoid waiting until the last day to submit the full application, since heavy Internet traffic or a fault with the Internet connection (including electricity failure, etc.) could lead to difficulties in submission.

5 Clarification: Goods or services offered free or at less than the usual charge result in an in-kind contribution. Similarly, when a person or entity pays for services on the project’s behalf, the payment is an in-kind contribution.
2.2.3. Dissemination of the Call

Information Sessions on this Call for Proposals will be held in Belgrade, Podgorica, Prishtina, Sarajevo, Skopje, Tirana and other locations in the region, during the month of November 2019. Please check the WBF webpage and social media pages for the exact Info-session schedule.

2.3. Visibility

All communication and visibility activities should be carried out in close cooperation with the WBF Secretariat.

Dissemination of results by the applicant should focus on development with the Western Balkans Fund (WBF) as partner and on the achievements and impact of the project, not on administrative or procedural milestones. In order to maximize the impact of communication efforts:

- Activities need to be timely;
- Information used must be accurate;
- Activities should be coordinated closely with the WBF Secretariat;
- The right audience(s) should be targeted;
- Messages should interest the target audience(s);
- Activities should be appropriate in terms of resources spent, timing and expected impact;

Allocated budget for communication and visibility actions which should be included in the work plan of any WBF funded or co-funded project, highlighting the communication activities that need to take place at key stages in the life of the project. The level of detail should be appropriate with the nature, extent and cost of the communication activities envisaged.

Applicants should develop a communication and visibility plan which can be easily followed through the project lifespan. The communication and visibility plan for any action should seek to maximize synergies with the overall visibility strategy of the WBF Secretariat.

In formulating communication activities funded by WBF, applicants should take account the following:

- Methods of communication selected and messages given should be compatible with prevailing social or religious norms in the place where the communication activity is carried out;
- Activities should respect the local environment.
- In all communication activities, the official language should be English followed by local language.

The visibility of the WBF is essential during the whole period of the project implementation.

The winning applicants should adhere to the WBF Communication and Visibility Guidelines during the entire contractual period, by including the Fund’s logo and a direct link to the Fund’s web page on their organizations’ web sites. The winning applicants are strongly encouraged to promote WBF on their social networking sites (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and LinkedIn) and to make references to the Fund’s active accounts:

- Facebook https://www.facebook.com/WesternBalkansFund/
- Twitter https://twitter.com/balkans_fund
- Instagram https://www.instagram.com/westernbalkansfund/
- LinkedIn https://www.linkedin.com/company/westernbalkansfund/

The Fund reserves the right to make use of the project results for its promotion.

2.3.1. Partnership Platform
Wester Balkans Fund established a Partnership Platform in Facebook in order to assist applicants to find a suitable Project Partner for WBF Call for Regional Projects.

The following partner search page seeks to support you with identifying possible project partners:

   https://www.facebook.com/groups/WBFPartnershipPlatform/

Applicants are free to post and interact with each other; while WBF Partnership Platform official language is English, for this reason, non-English language announcements won’t be considered to the Group’s newsfeed.

2.4. Additional Information

Inquiries pertaining to this Call for Proposals can be sent by e-mail no later than 25 November 2019 before the deadline for the submission of project proposals to the following e-mail address:

   info@westernbalkansfund.org

The WBF has no obligation to provide clarifications to questions received after this date. Only the questions sent in written will be answered (no phone inquiries).

Replies will be summarized and publicized no later than 7 days before the deadline for submission of project proposals at the WBF website. Please note that the replies to the questions asked at the Information Sessions will also be publicized at the WBF website.
2.5. Evaluation and selection of project proposals

Project proposals will be examined and evaluated by the WBF Secretariat. The approval of the awarded projects will be made by the WBF Council of the Senior Officials\(^6\) followed by the final endorsement of winning projects by the WBF Conference of Ministers of Foreign Affairs.

Please note that the WBF strives to award projects in equal and balanced proportions across the WB6 Contracting Parties.

All applications will be evaluated according to the steps and criteria enclosed in the Section 2.3.1.

If the examination of the application reveals that the proposed action does not meet the eligibility criteria stated in Section 2.1., the application may be rejected on this sole basis.

2.5.1. Administrative and eligibility check

During the administrative and eligibility check the following will be assessed:

i. If the deadline has been met. Otherwise, the application will be automatically rejected.

ii. If the project proposal satisfies the eligibility criteria specified in the Chapter 2.1 of this Guidelines.

iii. If any of the requested information/document is missing or is incorrect, the application may be rejected on that sole basis and the application will not be evaluated further.

\(^6\) Clarification: The Council of the Senior Officials of the Western Balkans Fund is composed by the appointed officials from the Ministries of the Foreign Affairs of the WB6 members.
2.5.1.1. Evaluation grid

The project applications that pass the administrative and eligibility check will be evaluated on the relevance and design of the proposed action. The project applications will receive an overall score out of 100 in line with the evaluation grid below.
